No Mistake About the Press Muzzle Bill Being Intended for The Menace---Roman Catholic Sheets Give the Thing Away---Great Rejoicing in the Camps of Rome Over New Indictments Against Menace Editors and Publishers

The fact is no arrest was made at all—it wasn't necessary—only rejaculations from our Catholic contemporaries regarding the fight on the little old Menace:

One of Brooklyn's Catholic congressmen, Hon. John J. Fitzgerald, spurred to action by the repeated demands of the action by the repeated demands of the members of the Brooklyn Diocessan hranch of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, has introduced in the House of Representatives as "Bill to Amend the Postal Laws," H. E. No. 2004. If the bill is reported favorably and passes both houses, The Menace and other indecent publications at tacking the church and spreading fifth broadcast through the agency of the United States postofice will be denied they depart as soon as the grand jury adjourned?

We presume that they will be there and why did they depart as soon as the grand jury adjourned?
